Welcome to our 50th Anniversary season - an exciting programme of work that recognises our rich history not just by recreating it, but creatively reinterpreting it for 2022, alongside projects that reflect our present and give a glimpse into our future. After such a difficult time, we wanted to bring you a year of joy and laughter with funny, heart-warming stories that create that unmissable feeling of live theatre.

Over to you! Doing your bit for your special place

We hope you're as excited as we are about the great programme, we've put together to celebrate Hull Truck Theatre's 50th anniversary. It's great to be back after our stages were dark for so long. But with most of our income still under great pressure, rebuilding will be a challenge - we're relying on your generosity and support more than ever. If the theatre has meant a lot to you, and you want to see it survive and thrive for the NEXT 50 years, then please take a moment to consider how you could play your important part:

Supporting Cast: If you'd like to pledge a modest, regular gift and get closer to the action, join our Supporting Cast at the right level for you, giving us the security to plan for the future.

Dedicate a seat: If you want to mark your connection to your theatre at this special time, dedicate a seat.

Give the Gift: If you've been inspired and entertained by our work over the years, could you Give the Gift of Theatre to open the door to a magical theatre experience for someone else?

Remember us in your will: If you'd like to make a transformational difference to our future, remember the theatre in your will - once your family and friends are taken care of. All gifts, large and small, will have an impact on stage and in the community.

If you'd like to find out more, all the ways you can help are on our website, or you can call us on 01482 323638, email development@hulltruck.co.uk or ask our staff when you visit. Thank you for EVERYTHING you make possible. Here's to the next 50 years!

Hull Truck Theatre and John Godber Company present

Teechers Leavers '22

Written by John Godber

Directed by Mark Babych

As part of Hull Truck Theatre's 50th anniversary celebrations, John Godber reimagines his iconic play for the leavers of 2022. Salty, Gail and Hobby are departing Whitewall College for uncertain futures in uncertain times. Burn out, pregnancies, stress, affairs, depression; no-one is exempt, from the students, and security staff, to the business-minded Principal. How much more can a system take?

In 1987 the teaching of drama in Comprehensive education was being marginalised in a system under pressure. In the same year Hull Truck Theatre produced Teechers which was to become the go-to play to attract young people to the theatre. Thirty-five years later, exam chaos, tech poverty, isolation, absenteeism, and lost school hours have put the state system under more pressure than ever before.

Highly physical, hugely funny, deceptively radical, mixing dance and spoken word, Teechers Leavers '22 is alive and in your face; back in Hull where it all started.

Tickets: £28.50 - £10 (concessions available)

Leaving Vietnam

Vietnam veteran Jimmy vows to 'Make America Great Again'. A gripping new solo performance by the playwright of Dancing through the Shadows and Dark Winter.

When Jimmy Vanderberg leaves the Ford factory in Detroit and volunteers to serve in Vietnam, he wants to prove himself a man. But after the war, Jimmy returns to a country more humiliated than grateful and feels abandoned by those he served. Years later, he is persuaded by the 'Make America Great Again' campaign, but a chance visit by the son of a fallen comrade forces him to doubt his convictions.

A gripping new solo play by the award-winning playwright of Hull Truck audience favourites, Dancing through the Shadows and Dark Winter.

The Damned United

Down the stairs... Along the corridor... Round the corner... Into the dressing room... HIS dressing room. Hateful, hateful place. Spiteful, spiteful place. Dirty, dirty Leeds.

1974. Brian Clough, the enfant terrible of British football, tries to redeem his managerial career and reputation by winning the European Cup with his new team: Leeds United. The team he has openly despised for years, the team he hates, and which hates him. Don Revie's Leeds. Originally co-produced with Leeds Playhouse, The Damned United takes you inside the tortured mind of a genius slamming up against his limits and brings to life the beauty and brutality of football, the working man's ballet.

Adapted from the novel by David Peace

Directed by Red Ladder's Artistic Director, Rod Dixon

Hull Truck Theatre presents a community production of

A Midsummer Night's Dream

By William Shakespeare

Directed by Tom Saunders

Enter an enchanted forest near Athens for a night of magic and mayhem as Shakespeare's romantic comedy masterpiece is performed by members of the local community.

An argument between Oberon and Titania, King and Queen of the Fairies, has filled the forest with mischief. At the same time, four young lovers face a tangle of unrequited love and for Hermia, the threat of death if she doesn't marry the man her father has chosen. Determined to be true to their hearts they escape into the woods, right into the hands of the fairies.

Bottom the Weaver and his comedy crew of Mechanicals are in the woods to rehearse a play for the upcoming royal wedding. They too are caught up in the tricks of fairy Puck and his mischievous matchmaking.

With morning on the horizon, it is a race against time...will they all awaken from this confusion of a dream?

Join us as the local community come together to tell this highly entertaining story, celebrating the messy business of love.

Alina Bzhezhinska Hip Harp Quintet

Featuring Jay Phelps (Trumpet)

Internationally renowned harpist Alina Bzhezhinska has built a reputation for innovation. For this new project she's created a unique sound on the harp with effect pedals and electronics, supported by Mikele Montolli (bass) & Joel Prime (percussion) and featuring the innovative trumpeter, Jay Phelps.

Through a combination of original music and covers, she pays homage to some of jazz, funk and hiphop's greatest innovators. Her new quintet draws from a variety of influences, including the likes of Dorothy Ashby's Afroharping, Alice Coltrane and Sun Ra, as well as 90s triphop and Kutiesqe Afrobeat rhythms.

Late Night Marauders in concert

A very special evening to celebrate the irrepressible delight that is Late Night Marauders, in their first major theatre show with full band and special guests. Led by whirlwind soulstress Ruth Scott and the piano wizardry of James Wood, their unique blend of soul, R'n'B and boogie evokes visions of smoky basement clubs in the 1950's where beatniks and jazz heads would party.

Tickets: £12 (students and under 26's £6)

Sat 16 July, 2pm

The Kickstart Commissions: 3 world premieres

2pm - Camille Maalawy with Tom Lawrence: Songs-upon-Hull

British Egyptian singer Camille Maalawy and composer Tom Lawrence have been working with school children and community groups from across the city to create a series of songs themed around migration, connection and cultural identity

3.30pm - Vulliamy Murray Bennett Trio: Factory Free-set

Stories of Hull, its people and history take centre stage as the trio collaborate with acclaimed writer and director Maureen Lennon. Freeform pieces explore unsung stories, dreams and experiences from within Hull's factory walls in this work in progress.

5pm - James Rushworth: Trespass

Composer and producer James Rushworth's Trespass is a new multimedia performance that documents the story of the 1932 Kinder Scout Mass Trespass. Improvised ambient and electronic music combines with live projections to give a new perspective on the right to roam.

Tickets: £6 for all three shows (students and under 26's £3)

Don Vappie & Jazz Créole Direct from New Orleans

Featuring David Hornblow (clarinet), Dave Kelbie (guitar), Sebastien Girardot (bass)

Créole music from the Jimi Hendrix of the banjo Jazz Album of the Year 2020 - The Times UK Recipient of the 2021 Steve Martin Banjo Prize. US Musician and entertainer Don Vappie is the number one New Orleans Jazz banjoist on the planet today. He's headlined at festivals and concert halls around the world, including Carnegie Hall in New York.

Don's kept alive the Créole songs of New Orleans, winning many awards for preserving this cultural treasure. He embodies all aspects of this unique melting pot of cultures, evident through the list of artists he's performed with. They include Wynton Marsalis, Eric Clapton, Dee Dee Bridgewater, Peggy Lee, Otis Taylor, Diana Krall, Bette Midler, and Preservation Hall. He's also highlighted the banjo's journey from Africa through seamless performances with artists from Mali, Cheik Hamamla Diabate and Basaku Kuyata, and from Senegal, Dema Dia.

This show combines New Orleans genres, from traditional jazz to modern day funk, with the classic early tradition of a string band. The result is "Jazz Créole" and it's the real deal!

Tickets: £20 (students and under 26's £6)

White Sun

A lo fi solo symphony of words and movement.

Conjuring the ghosts of the men who have dominated the stage before him, Will takes us on a journey, navigating the tensions of inheritance, privilege and addiction. Personal and political. Unsettling and humorous.

What do you see when you look at Will?

A white son.

A boy who can't stop moving.

Can't stop speaking.

And pointing.

Pointing at old actors and being successful.

Pointing at sugar and the milky bar kid.

Pointing at the sun.

Set against a backdrop of a nation that continues to bask in the light of its colonial legacy, hooked on profits despite the costs. White Sun collides with the past in the here and now of a human nervous system.

Ladies Unleashed

Written by Amanda Whittington

The Ladies are back!

Jan, Linda, Shelley, and Pearl have managed a rare get-together on the Holy Island of Lindisfarne, but old tensions are rising.

Shelley's moved in with Linda but is outstaying her welcome, Jan and Shelley are bickering non-stop, and Pearl just wants to give her husband Mike the send-off he deserves. The island itself is just as restless and when a huge storm hits, it stirs up spirits from the past. With the power out and cut off by the tide, the friends face ghosts, both real and imagined.

Following the smash-hits Ladies Day and Ladies Down Under, Amanda Whittington brings us the third instalment of the Ladies Trilogy. Don't miss this moving comedy about friendship and facing the future.

A Christmas Carol

Deborah McAndrew*

On a cold Christmas Eve, four spirits conspire to show Ebenezer Scrooge the error of his ways. His old business partner, Jacob Marley has returned from the dead to offer him a second chance, if he can change his mean and miserly behaviour.

Nowhere are the effects of poverty more keenly felt than in the Cratchit family, especially by their youngest son, Tiny Tim. As Scrooge's inspirational journey shows him both the hardship and love of those around him, he is reminded of his own powers of charity and kindness.

This thrilling adaptation of Dicken's classic Christmas ghost story, set in Hull, is a magical, festive treat for all the family.

Mumsy

By Lydia Marchant

Sophie is going to be a third generation single Mum and she's terrified. How will she afford to feed them both? Can she hold on to her job? What if she's a crap Mum? Surely she can count on her own Mum and Nan to help... Wrong!

Rachel's got used to having a life of her own and doesn't fancy giving up pole class and Tinder to go back to changing nappies and no sleep. Having Sophie back home is really cramping her style.

Meanwhile, after getting scouted to be an Annie Lennox impersonator on the P&O Ferries, her Nan's having a three-quarter life crisis of her own. In a one-bed flat in Gypsyville, Hull, three women battle through the friendship, drama, and love of mother-daughter relationships.

For fans of A Taste of Honey and Motherland, this warm comedy has been developed as part of Hull Truck Theatre's Grow Artist Development programme.

Tickets: £28.50 - £10 (concessions available)

Get Involved

There are lots of amazing ways to take part at Hull Truck Theatre where you can learn new skills, develop your creativity, and have the chance to perform.

Youth Theatre Classes

Our Youth Theatre Classes take place on weeknights and on Saturdays giving young people aged 7-18 the chance to experience the thrill and creativity of performance. The classes develop the confidence and skills needed to make and perform theatre, as well as being a place to have fun and make friends. Youth Theatre Classes fees are either £55, £45 or £35 per term depending on your circumstances.

Young Creators

Our new free Young Creators scheme for 14 - 18-year-olds meets at the theatre on Monday and Tuesday evenings, where members work together to make exciting contemporary theatre that is drawn from the ideas and opinions of the young people themselves.

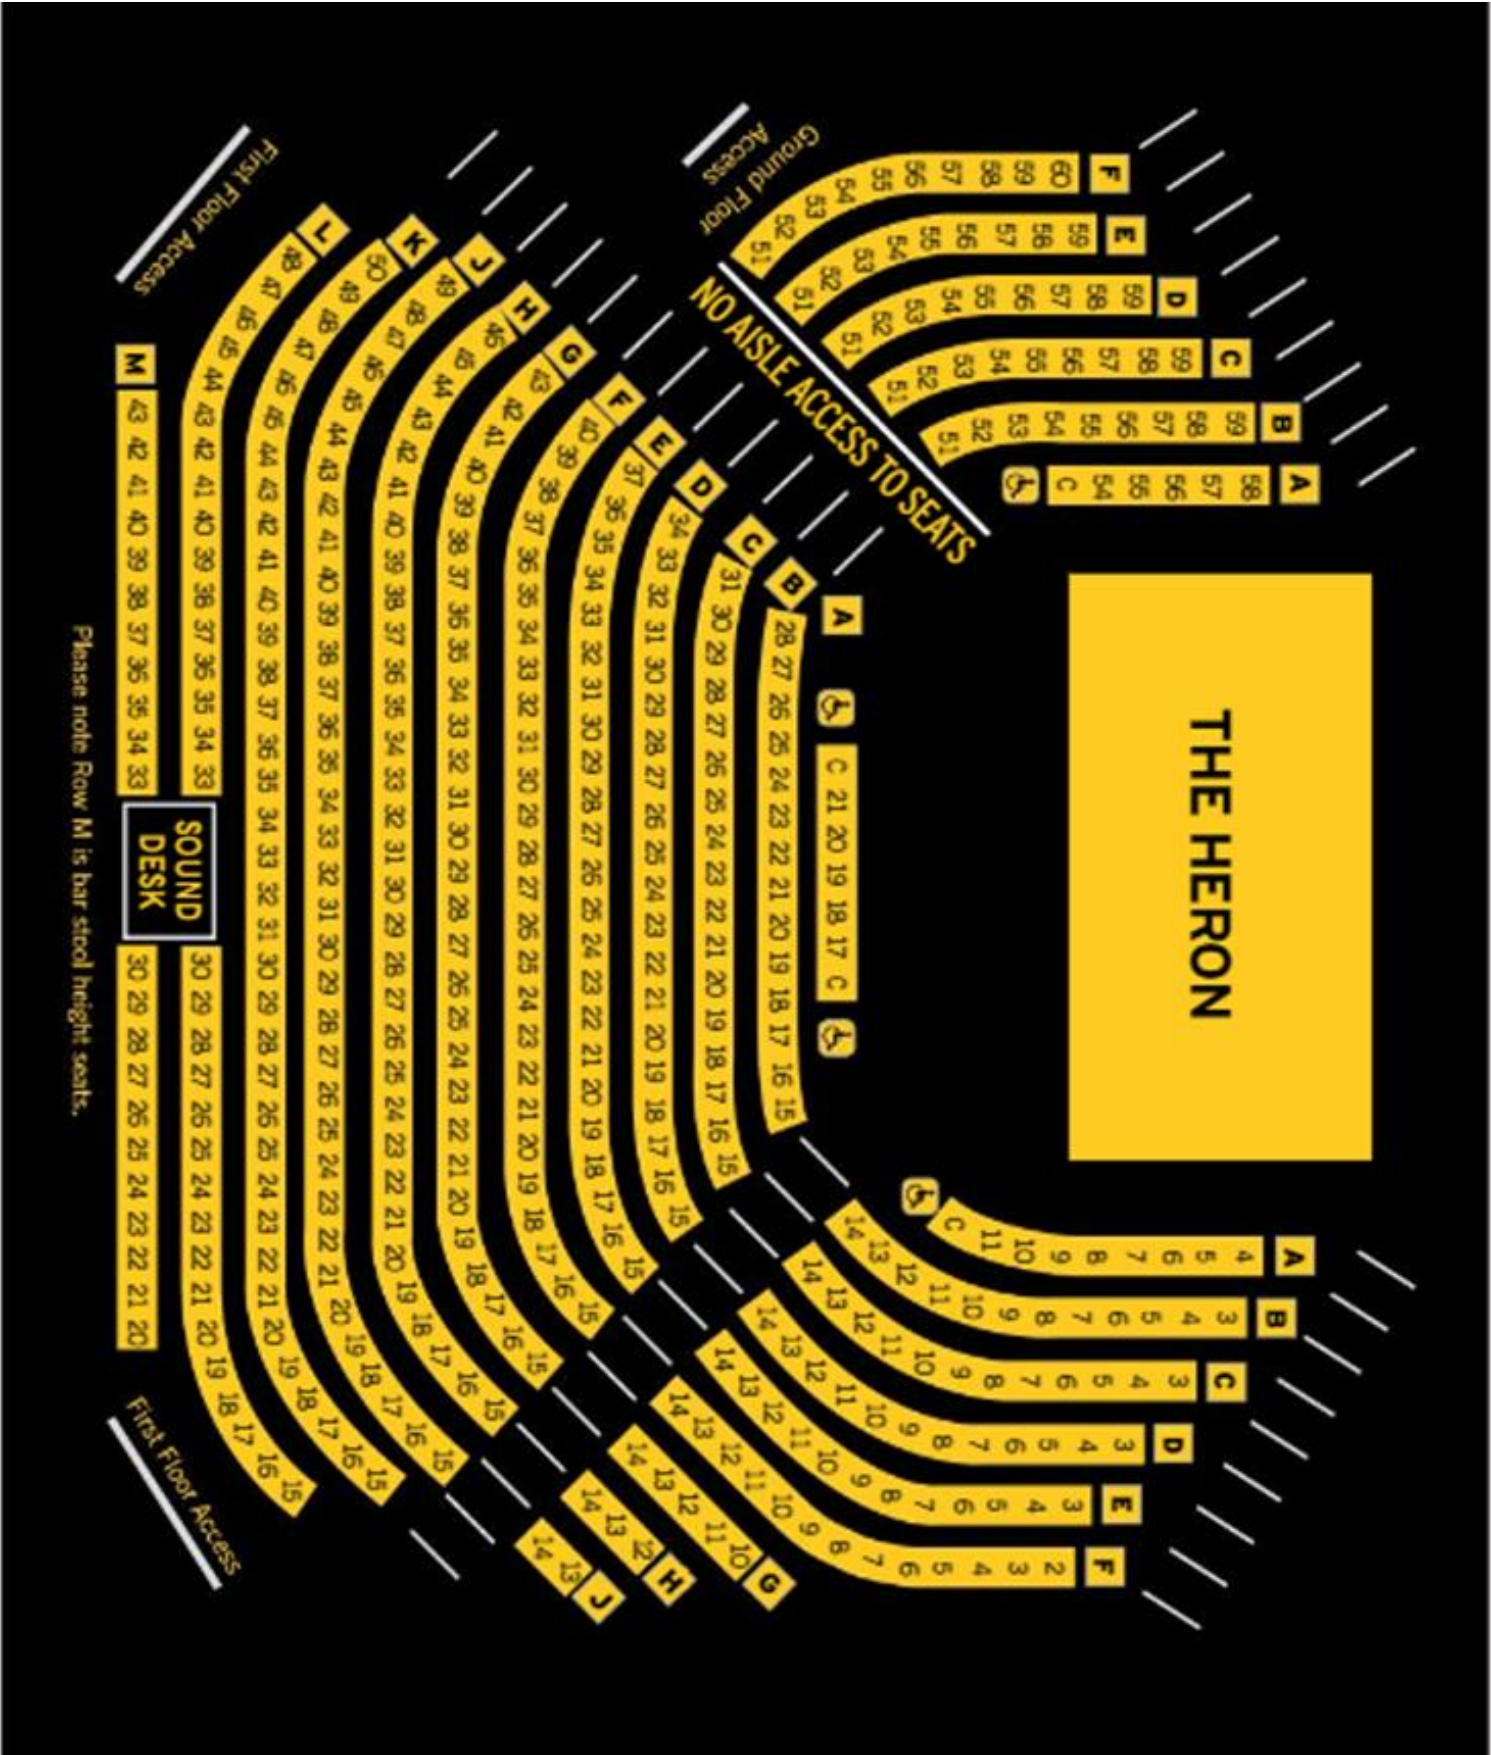

The young creators will produce and perform in new plays that they have created from scratch taking the role of performers, writers, directors, and whatever other creative roles are necessary.

Act III

A weekly theatre makers group for retired adults who come together to share their passion for Drama. Whether you enjoy writing, performing, directing or just enjoy learning new skills with likeminded people, Act III is a wonderful place to share ideas and make theatre. Membership of Act III costs £55 per term.

For more information about how to get involved with these groups contact us 01482 488209 or email us at engagement@hulltruck.co.uk
